Advertising on Team Uniform Regulations

- The uniform and accessories of the national team(s) must comply with the FIVB Event Regulations (Art. 4.9, Ch. 6 and Annex A).
- The Advertising Fee is defined in the FIVB Financial Regulations. Advertising fee is either invoiced or directly deducted from the team's prize money according to the Advertising on Team Uniform Approval Certificate received from the FIVB for each competition. Please note that the FIVB Financial Regulations are currently under review and updates shall follow shortly.
- The national team(s) may have up to three (3) sponsors during a given event. Team Delegation's members must not display any advertising logo other than the name(s) of the one (1)/two (2)/three (3) sponsor(s) logo(s) registered by the national federation and approved by the FIVB.
- When there is a change in the advertising material approved by the FIVB, whether the sponsor(s) and/or manufacturer, the same procedure shall apply and the fee will be due again.
- The national team(s) must display the same advertising material on all team equipment. Only in the case of the Libero(s), the advertisement material may be inverted as per Annex A of the FIVB Event Regulations.

6. The Advertising on Team Uniform Form together with three (3) sets (each one of a different color) of the Captain's playing uniforms (and Libero's, if different) must be sent by the national federation to the FIVB no later than four (4) weeks prior to the start of the competition, regardless if it contains sponsors or not. The uniform samples, sent to the FIVB, will remain in the possession of the FIVB. The NF shall also send the high-quality graphic layouts of the playing uniform sets, displaying clearly all the measurements required in the FIVB Event Regulations (Art. 4.9. Ch. 6 and Annex A).
7. The FIVB has the right to refuse all advertising material, which is contrary to the spirit of the FIVB Regulations. Upon receipt and approval of the application, the FIVB will issue an Advertising on Team Uniform Approval Certificate. This certificate must be presented by the Team Manager at the Preliminary Inquiry of each competition.
